- Students are required to demonstrate their knowledge of English at intermediate level (B2-CEFR) through an interview

PROCEDURE FOR ADMISSION

The applications for admission to academic courses, which must be submitted complete with links for pre-selection, are accepted every year starting from January 1st, no later than April 30th. Applications arriving late will be considered individually, at the Management's discretion, based on available places and possible cancellations.

Each student will have to follow the Saint Louis enrollment procedure, following the same Admission steps (sending the admission or enrollment request form, pre-selection, practical Admission tests, etc.) provided for all other students for the purpose of assessing the entry level in the subjects included in the chosen Course.

1. GET READY FOR PRE-SELECTION

Jazz | Pop | Songwriting: Record a video (by any means/device) containing 4 songs performed by you, of which at least 3 must be performed as a group (at least as a trio). Live performance videos are accepted. At least 2 of the 4 songs should be chosen from the given list (see Admission Tests contents). The videos must be uploaded to youtube or other similar web portals and must be indicated as a link in the application form.

Composition | Electronic Music | Applied Music: Prepare a link containing the Portfolio (video, audio, scores) of your most indicative and recent works.

There is no pre-selection for the Sound Engineering Course.

2. FILL IN THE ADMISSION REQUEST

The application for admission to academic courses can be sent every year starting from January 1st, no later than April 30th. Webform

3. WAIT FOR THE RESULTS OF THE PRE-SELECTION

Candidates who pass the pre-selections will be admitted to the Admission Tests, which can be taken online between January and June, on dates to be agreed individually. If the candidate wants to take the tests in person, the admission session will be unique, in the month of June.

4. PREPARE FOR THE ADMISSION TESTS

In case of a positive result in the pre-selections, you will be contacted by the International Office to define the period in which to take the admission tests.

5. ADMISSION TEST CONTENTS

Test contents are available here, <https://www.slmc.it/piani-di-studio/?lang=en>

The entire admission process is FREE, however the payment of the Enrollment Fee (€ 240 if paid by April 30/ € 290 after April 30) is non-refundable and has to be paid after the pre-selection and before sitting the Admission Tests.

Students whose entry preparation is NOT DEEMED SUITABLE for direct entry to 1st Cycle Academic level courses, will be able to access the most appropriate level of pre-academic courses, thus also starting from the 2nd or 3rd pre-academic year.

PROCEDURE FOR ENROLLMENT

Studying at Saint Louis for international students from countries outside the EU, the methods, deadlines and regulations for being able to apply for access to academic courses at Saint Louis are established by the Italian Ministry of Education.

For more information on this, visit: Studying in Italy

Updates to the enrollment procedures are usually published in May for enrollment in the following academic year (starting in September).

The ACCEPTANCE LETTER, necessary for obtaining a visa for study purposes, is usually prepared by the International Office at the end of the entire process (pre-selection + Admission Tests).

The official pre-registrations made through Italian Diplomatic Representations Abroad will take place through the Portal University.

Founded in 1976, Saint Louis is among the most renowned music didactic realities of European scope, attended by over 1.800 students per year, coming from all Nations.

The school boasts a steady educating staff made up of 120 tutors of National and international repute, chaired since 1998 by M° Stefano Mastruzzi.

The educational training offer is among the largest ones in Europe, with more than 360 different courses.

The Saint Louis music school in Rome set up an artistic agency in 2000 (Saint Louis Management), two record labels in 2004 (Jazz collection and Urban 49), and, in 2009, an Artistic Production Center with the aim of cultivating young talents and guiding them through an original artistic production in the world of work, promoting their activity with concerts in the main Italian festivals and live clubs.

SPD Scuola Politecnica di Design is the first school for design disciplines in Italy, founded in Milan in 1954. Today, SPD is an international laboratory for exchanging experiences, for developing projects by keeping a balance between function and expression, production, and experimentation, thanks to the combination of its Italian roots and a strong international orientation.

The young professionals that the school is able to offer to the market and the creative work developed every year are also testimony to this incredibly rewarding dialogue with companies, manufacturers and the various actors along the design chain.

At SPD every student is followed individually by a faculty made up of designers, professionals from various fields and visiting tutors. Teaching is arranged into intensive workshops, studio classes, theoretical lectures, seminars, and visits.

Ferrari Fashion School Milan is a fashion school that's been operating in the Fashion and Luxury field for 20 years, training new generations of professionals appreciated at international level.

The didactic approach and the working methodology used by Ferrari Fashion School are based on six main pillars: culture, collaboration, sharing, comparison, interdisciplinarity and internationalization, which are some of the adjectives that most characterize the educational offer that touches, transversally, all or most of the professional figures involved in the fashion and design supply chain: whether it is a collection project, the launch of a new brand or an advertising or communication campaign.

Ferrari Fashion School offers its students the opportunity to work, during their training, on interdisciplinary projects, collaborating with companies, teachers, professionals, and students from all over the world.

STUDY ABOARD

STUDY ABOARD is the way to meet your institution's precise academic needs and goals through rich custom programs that inspire students, enhance curriculum, and fit your schedule and budget. A fully flexible course framework, allowing substantial variability in terms of:

- Content: you can choose among both a vast array of customized English-taught programs and workshops focusing on specific matters, and theoretical courses (ie. History of Applied Arts, History of Italian Design, History of Architecture and Design, A Social History of Italy Through Cinema, etc.), in accordance with your institution's curriculum.
- Faculty: program can be taught partly by your teachers.
- Location: the core of the program will take place in Siracusa, but - thanks to the partnership with Accent International - parts of it can be held in Florence, Rome or one of the other Accent Study Centers.
- Language: Should your students need it, an intensive Italian Language Program can be included as well, by our partner The Academy of English (theacademyofenglish.it).
- Visits: tours and field trips to the most significant artistic, cultural, and natural attractions in Sicily can be organized on request.

MADE Program awards ECTS credits for its STUDY ABOARD Programs, so it will be easier for students to transfer their credits to other Universities and Academies that use or acknowledge the ECTS system.

MADE Program offers to students from any university different types of STUDY ABROAD programs:
CUSTOMIZED PROGRAMS AND WORKSHOPS.

Tell us the courses and activities you need and together we craft a one or two-week long program or a specific workshop designed especially for you.

FACULTY-LED PROGRAMS.

MADE provides classrooms, laboratories, and services for courses taught by partner school faculty

MADE LABS

MADE LABS is the International Summer School of MADE Program. A series of one-week summer workshops, led by world-renowned creative professionals, addressed to designers, architects and artists who are curious about new developments in their fields.

SEMESTER

A flexible program emphasizing conceptual and material specialization, with an intensely hands-on approach and focus on the development of individual artistic and design capabilities, critical perceptions, and mastery of comprehensive technical skills.

THE "GRAND TOUR" PROJECT

"Pick out of every country what's best in it." Richard Lassels, The Voyage of Italy, or a Compleat Journey through Italy (1670)

MADE Program is part of Plena Education, a broad and diversified arts education platform with universities campuses and labs in different cities throughout Italy. This network offers a unique opportunity for students, especially those coming from abroad, to visit – as part of an integrated, organic program organized in concert with their home schools – various local centers, acquire the skills and abilities historically rooted in those localities, and enter contact with cultures that are the products of unique and unrepeatable local histories.
